

Visit Saint Barbara's Cathedral in Kutná Hora – late-Gothic architectural gem and UNESCO World Heritage site

Central Bohemia Region

www.middleczech.cz

This unique example of late Gothic architecture was started in 1388 and it was completed 500 years later.

The Central Bohemia Gallery (GASK), opened in 2010, not only displays modern art. Its most valuable item is the Kutná Hora Illumination, a rare 15th-century miniature acquired at an auction at Sotheby's in London for over half a million pounds.